At the bottom of the sea there are creatures that do not know what light means. They have neither eyes nor ears, and they can only feel. For them there is no day or night. There are no seasons, no sun, no moon, and no stars. It is as if a child spent its life in darkness in bed, with nothing to see or hear.

How different our own life is! Sight shows us the ground beneath our feet and the heavens above us--the sun, moon, and stars, shooting stars, lightning, and the sunset. It shows us day and night. We hear voices, the sound of the sea, and music. We feel, we taste and we smell. How fortunate we are!

36. What is this story mainly about?
 (A) Seasons at the bottom of the sea.
 (B) Changes in day and night and the seasons.
 (C) How wonderful our lives are.
 (D) The differences among creatures of the earth.
37. Which of the following statements is true for the sea creatures in the story?
 (A) They have the same senses as people do.
 (B) They have no sense of touch.
 (C) They hear the sounds of the ocean.
 (D) They live in darkness.
38. What is a child in darkness in bed like?
 (A) Someone who lives where there are no seasons.
 (B) An animal without the sense of touch.
 (C) A sea creature without sight or hearing.
 (D) A deaf child.

39. What are the "heavens" in this story?
 (A) The Milky Way.
 (B) The sky that we see when we look up at night.
 (C) The home of God.
 (D) The place above the clouds.

After months of colder weather, the days get longer, the buds come out in the trees, birds sing, and the world puts on a green dress. Spring passes into summer. Everyone knows that summer will not last. The power of all the wisest men and women in the world cannot keep it for us. The corn becomes ripe, the leaves turn brown and then drop to the ground, and the world changes its green dress for a dress of autumn colors.

40. During which season does the world put on a green dress?
 (A) Summer (B) Spring (C) Winter (D) Autumn
41. What is the story mainly about?
 (A) Change. (B) The beauty of the seasons.

42. What is the season described at the end of the passage?
 (A) Summer (B) Spring (C) Winter (D) Autumn
43. What is it that the world cannot keep for us, as is described in the passage?
 (A) Wisdom (B) Power (C) Summer (D) Leaves

AN ANT went to the bank of a river to quench its thirst, and being carried away by the rush of the stream, was on the point of drowning. A Dove sitting on a tree overhanging the water plucked a leaf and let it fall into the stream close to her. The Ant climbed onto it and floated in safety to the bank. Shortly afterwards a bird-catcher came and stood under the tree, and laid his lime-twigs for the Dove, which sat in the branches. The Ant, perceiving his design, stung him in the foot. In pain the bird-catcher threw down the twigs, and the noise made the Dove take wing.

44. Why did the Ant go to the river?
 (A) The Ant went fishing.
 (B) The Ant was thirsty.
 (C) The Ant wanted to have fun in the water.
 (D) The Ant felt like boating in the river.

 (A) The Dove just picked up the Ant with the beak.
 (B) The Dove informed the bird-catcher of the drowning of the Ant.
 (C) The Dove plucked a leaf and let it fall onto the river.
 (D) The Dove threw down the twigs.
46. Between whom did the story mainly happen?
 (A) The Ant and The River. (B) The Ant and The Dove.
 (C) The Dove and The bird-catcher. (D) The bird-catcher and the twigs.
47. At the end of the story, what did the Dove do?

- (A) The Dove flew away. (B) The Dove made a lot of noise.
 (C) The Dove felt in deep pain. (D) The Dove laid the lime-twigs.
48. What is the moral of the story?
 (A) Evil companions bring more hurt than profit.
 (B) Trust not in him that seems a saint.
 (C) There is no eye like the master's.
 (D) One good turn deserves another.

Curt Schilling was missing his overpowering stuff. Brian McCann and the Braves sure took advantage of it.

McCann homered and drove in four runs off Schilling, who endured his first strikeout-free start since 1993 in Atlanta's 9-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox on Monday night.

Schilling was rocked for 10 hits and six runs in 4 1-3 innings, his second-shortest outing of the season. More telling, the 40-year-old right-hander failed to strike out anyone--the first time that's happened in one of his starts since July 1, 1993.

Coco Crisp homered twice for the Red Sox , and J.D. Drew went deep for Boston's other run. But McCann outdid them both, putting the Braves ahead for good with an RBI double in the fourth and chasing Schilling (6-4) the next inning.

With one out, Edgar Renteria and Chipper Jones hit consecutive singles to bring up Atlanta's young catcher. McCann worked the count in his favor, then drove a 2-1 pitch into the seats just to the right of the 400-foot sign. The three-run homer put Atlanta ahead 6-1 and offset a trio of solo homers by the Red Sox , who sat one of their biggest offensive.
